

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
Chapter 283, Laws of 1949

Relative to Bounties on Porcupines.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1. BOUNTIES REDUCED. Amend section 2 of chapter 180 of the Revised Laws as inserted by chapter 203 of the Laws of 1945 by striking out the word "fifty" in the seventh line and inserting in place thereof the word twenty-five, so that said section as amended shall read as follows:
2. PORCUPINES. If any person shall kill a porcupine within this state and shall produce the head thereof to the selectmen of the town ^{OR} ~~of~~ clerk of the city in which it was killed, and shall prove to their satisfaction that such porcupine was killed by him, within the limits of said town or city, the selectmen or city clerk shall destroy the head so produced so that it cannot be offered again for bounty, and shall pay twenty-five cents for each porcupine so destroyed. Any person producing for bounty to the selectmen or city clerk the head of a porcupine, killed outside the limits of that town or city, shall be fined not less than ten dollars, or imprisoned thirty days, or both. Said towns and cities shall be reimbursed for payment of said bounties as provided in section 5 hereof.

APPROVED - July 14, 1949

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
Concord, N. H.

There is enclosed a copy of the new law relative to the payment of bounties on porcupines as approved July 14, 1949, which reduces the bounty from fifty cents to twenty-five cents.
