1972 (Laconia Evening Citizen)

A severe wind, "the second the Lakes Region has experienced this summer season, swept into the town of Gilmanton" July 3, "and raised havoc in the Loon Pond area…Like a tornado the wind swept along the back shore of the lake turning over cards, knocking down trees and crumpling buildings." Seven persons were injured and taken to Lakes Region General Hospital.