Introduction

I decided to write this book about the early Barnstead families because so many people are looking for their ancestors now . This may help them locate them . I wanted to show who some of the early families were .

The early Barnstead pioneers came from Durham , Dover , Newington , Portsmouth , Barrington and Madbury to name a few of the towns . They came on foot at first following spotted trees through the wilderness . In 1760 they built the Province road . They built log cabins at first and later had framed homes. They cleared 1 acre at a time , always on the alert for Indians and wild animals . They had very hard winters and was short of food . They didnt have many doctors then . They built Saw mills , Grist mills and Tanneries . In early 1800 there was 26 mills in Barnstead . In the early 1800 they started their churches and their schools . In 1839 there were 18 schools . We have 130 cemeteries in Barnstead , most of them are little family plots . From 1750 to 1865 the men had to fight in 4 wars . The women were left to run the farms .
