PREFACE

It is written that the first immigrant to America of the surname Gilman was Edward. He, his wife, Mary (Clark) Gilman, and their children left England in May 1638 on the ship "Ipswich", arriving at Boston later the same year. Edward was born in Hingham, Norfolk County, England in about 1587 or 1588 and was married there on 3 June 1614. His children were Mary, Edward, Sarah, Lydia, John and Moses.

Edward was admitted a freeman in December 1638 and in 1641 was granted land at Seekonk, now Rehoboth, Massachusetts. His son, Edward, moved to Exeter, New Hampshire and in 1653 was lost at sea. Edward, the immigrant, and his sons, John and Moses, immediately left for Exeter and settled there. From Edward and through his sons, John, Edward and Moses, all the families of this name in Exeter and vicinity have descended.

Perhaps the greatest historian of Gilmanton, New Hampshire is Daniel Lancaster. In 1845 a portion of his research was printed under the title of "History of Gilmanton". In 1727 the charter for Gilmanton (originally spelled Gilmantown) was granted by his Majesty's Colonial Governor, John Wentworth, as compensation for services, rendered in defense of the country, to twenty four persons by the name of Gilman and 153 others. Several frontiers were, at this time, harassed by the raids of hostile Indians, deterring the anxious families from settling in their newly granted lands. It was not until December of 1761 that the first family, Benjamin Mudgett and his wife, arrived in town to be its first settlers. Samuel Gilman was the first to arrive of that surname, his being the fifth family to move to Gilmanton, arriving in the year 1762.

A second edition to this work is scheduled for the future in which the present recorded families will be "linked" to the original immigrant, Edward Gilman, and to which will be added the history of where and how our ancestors lived. As a result, only the above brief description is included to acquaint the readers with our past.

The following records have taken several years to compile and have been completed with the assistance of many of those living, to whom this author is most grateful. Vital records of those deceased have been verified through certified records whenever possible. Upmost care has been taken to assure accuracy although I realize that human error occasionally does show its face. I apologize for any errors that may be forthwith; however, I feel quite certain that which is recorded in this book is accurate to the best of my knowledge. Any omissions are due to lack of contributions from the families, or details were received too late to include in this work.

It has been my great pleasure to research and record this great historical family from the period of approximately 1800 to 1974, and it is my hope that the reader's enjoyment of the contents is as much as mine was in compiling the data.

February, 1974.

SAMUEL GILMAN

Born 4 March 1787, he married BETSY THING on 16 March 1809, both of Gilmanton, Strafford County, now Belknap County, New Hampshire. They were married by the Rev. Isaac Smith, the first settled minister of Gilmanton. Betsy was born 26 April 1787 and according to a Bible entry, died 5 October 1848 in Cooke County, Texas.

Their children were JOHN, born 22 March 1816, MARY JANE (GILMAN) HARRISON, born 20 July 1819, and HARRY (or Henry), born 19 October 1821 and believed to have died in Texas. Possible other children named are ASAEL (or Asahel), CHARLES, and LUCINDA (GILMAN) MORGAN.

MARY JANE was married in Porter County, Indiana 12 July 1840 to LAWSON HARRISON by Philander A. Davis, Justice of the Peace. She was born in Gilford, New Hampshire, a portion of Gilmanton disannexed in 1812. The Bible records HARRY's birth as having taken place in Chatedwyer, New York.

There are seven years between Samuel and Betsy's marriage date and John's birth-date leading me to speculate that one or two children, possibly of the above named, died prior to their leaving New Hampshire, in such as the epidemic which hit the vicinity of Gilmanton in 1813 and 1814, killing many, particularly children.

A concentrated effort to verify the above and the parents of Samuel and Betsy, thus linking our Samuel to the original immigrant, Edward, is now being made. Although data is scarce, we do find John, son of Samuel, shown on the 1840 census for Porter County, Indiana and he and his children are quite easy to follow from that time to present.

JOHN GILMAN

Son of SAMUEL and BETSY (THING) GILMAN. Born 22 March 1816 in Meredith, New Hampshire and died 17 February 1899 at Moline, Kansas with burial at the Hornet Cemetery in Hornet, Newton County, Missouri.

Milo Robinson, Justice of Peace, married JOHN and CATHERINE (KATY) LINDSEY on the 10 of December 1837 in Lake County, Indiana. After her death, John and MARTHA A. MCKEE were married on 19 July 1886 in Newton County, Dayton Township, Missouri by W. J. Price, Justice of Probate Court.

KATY LINDSEY was born Christmas Day 1820 in Ohio. Her father was born in Kentucky and her mother in Ohio. Katy died 16 November 1885 and is buried beside John. Their children were FRANCIS MARION, born 25 February 1841 in Lake County, Indiana; MILAN AUGUSTUS, born 2 December 1843 in Lake County, Indiana; NANCY JANE (GILMAN) PAYNE NEFF, born 29 March 1846 in Lake County, Indiana; CHARLES EMERY, born 22 November 1848 in Cook County, Illinois; ALBERT ORANGE, born 9 July 1851 in Dallas County, Iowa; BETSY C. (GILMAN) GASTON, born 12 September 1853 in Dallas County, Iowa; SAMUEL D., born 18 October 1856 in Dallas County, Iowa; and JOHN MICHAEL, born 23 December 1858 in Dallas County, Iowa. A son, age under five, was shown on the 1840 census report as their first-born, but was not shown on subsequent records. We can only surmise he died at a young age, and we will probably never establish his given name. John appears to have bought land wherever he moved. His travels can be traced through his children's birthplaces, then in later years we find him traveling with his sons. In 1866, records show them in Cass County, Missouri, 1870 in Neosho County, Kansas. In 1871 he bought land in Newton County, Missouri, and in 1892 he sells this land and moves to Elk County, Kansas where he passed away at the age of 82.

FRANCIS MARION GILMAN

Son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 25 February 1841 in Lake County, Indiana; died of Bright's Disease on 21 March 1913 at Moline, Elk County, Kansas with burial at the Moline Cemetery in Moline, Kansas.

His first marriage was to ELVINA DILLON on 10 December 1859 at Adel, Dallas County, Iowa, solemnized by Rev. Nickerson. Elvina was born 16 March 1843 in Illinois and died in Moline, Elk County, Kansas on 18 October 1906 with burial at the Moline Cemetery. She was the daughter of JONATHAN and ELIZABETH (DIXON) DILLON.

After Elvina's death, Francis married MARGARET J. TILLOTSON on 5 November 1907 in Elk County, Kansas. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by the Rev. J. R. Hankins. She passed away after Francis and is buried in the Moline Cemetery.

Children of FRANCIS and ELVINA (DILLON) GILMAN were FRANCIS ROSETTA GILMAN, daughter, born 31 July 1861 in Dallas County, Iowa and died 24 September 1868 with burial at Otterman Cemetery, Van Meter Township, Dallas County, Iowa; MARION BLANCHE (GILMAN) RUSHER born 21 January 1865; JOHN ELLSWORTH born 5 November 1866; ALBERTUS S. born 21 September 1868 in Dallas County, Iowa and died 5 December 1880 with burial at Moline Cemetery, Moline, Kansas; HARRY JOHNATHON born 31 January 1871; GEORGE WASHINGTON born 7 September 1873; KATY JANE ELIZABETH (GILMAN) MOREHEAD born 11 April 1876; MARGARET ESTELLA (GILMAN) BONNEY born 20 February 1878; NELSON RALPH, born 7 May 1880; MAUDE ANNA (GILMAN) SHUPP born 30 January 1884; and ELLEN EVELYN (GILMAN) HORN born 5 April 1887.

Francis Marion Gilman enlisted in the Army at Adel, Iowa at the beginning of the Civil War and served four years with the Second Iowa Battery, Div. V, Corps 15 and 16. He fought in eighteen battles, was wounded and captured at Tupelo, Mississippi on 14 July 1864, after which he was imprisoned in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and finally at the infamous Andersonville prison in Georgia for eighteen months. He was hospitalized at Mobile, Alabama, Jacksonville, Florida and at Annapolis, Maryland where he was discharged on 7 July 1865. After he was back in civilian life, complications set into the leg wounded during the Civil War, necessitating amputation of the leg. Francis donated land to the City of Moline for the city's first cemetery, where he is buried. He was a carpenter and farmer, a charter member of the Methodist Church in Moline, Kansas, served as post commander of the local G. A. R. Chapter, and was elected as Township Treasurer and later as Township Trustee. He was an active member of the Republican party.

On 7 February 1866, Francis sold his land in Dallas County, Iowa. Later that same year, his third child was born in Jasper County, Missouri. In 1868 he returned to Iowa for a short time, perhaps only to finalize the sale of his land, but where in a short three days he experienced the birth of his fourth child followed in three days, the death of his eldest child. In the year 1870, he and his family settled in Howard County, now Elk County, Kansas where he spent the rest of his life as a leading citizen of this community. In October of 1891 he sold his farm to Frank Harris and in November of the same year, bought into a hardware store. He later acquired sole ownership but in August of 1892, he sold the store and retired.

Elvina, wife of Francis Gilman, recorded her thoughts following the long and lonesome days he served in the Civil War. I share with you these writings, copied exactly as written by her, with blanks indicating words in question.

Elvina lived to see a fourth child of hers precede her in death and within two years of her death, two more of her children passed away. Six of Francis and Elvina's eleven children are buried beside them in the Moline Cemetery where nearby stood the home that they were all raised in.

Her parents were DAVID and MARY E. (GRIPPS) HULL.

Their first son, ROLLIN DAVID, was born 19 July 1896. Manetta Jane Hull was the sister of Vannie Hull who married John E. Gilman, cousin to Harry J., and a son of Charles Emery Gilman. About 1903, Ettie came to Washington State by train with her small son, Rollin, and he remembered the trip well, especially the large basket of chicken they brought to eat on the trip west. He also recalled how the train was ferried across the Columbia River from Gobel, Oregon to Kalama, Washington. Harry Gilman worked as a teamster, often trading his horses. She lived in Moline all her life and was immeasurable help to me in compiling the family data. I regret that she will not be able to share in the final product.

Ella married ERNEST FRANK HORN on 6 May 1902 in Moline, Kansas. Ernest was the son of JOSEPH MARION and NANCY J. HORN. He was born on 22 November 1878 in Hesper, Kansas and passed away 3 October 1965, with burial at the Moline Cemetery. Ella was Methodist and Ernest was Baptist. All of their children were Methodist excepting Frank, Jr. who joined the Baptist Church with his father but then after his marriage, joined the Methodist Church. Ella's parents moved into Moline proper, near the schoolhouse, when she was about five years old. She remembered one day shortly after their move when some Indians rode up to the house and her mother standing on the porch talking with them, with Ella hanging on tightly to her mother's apron strings. Her father, Francis, was quite a good carpenter and so the family would buy a house, he would remodel it and then sell it, as a result, moving quite often. Francis had found farming too difficult after his leg was amputated due to the Civil War injury.

MILAN AUGUSTUS GILMAN

Second surviving son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 2 December 1843 in Lake County, Indiana. His death occurred on Tuesday the 21st of December 1915 at the farm he homesteaded nine miles northeast of Seneca, Missouri in 1870. His youngest son still lives in the original home, thus retaining it in the family for over 100 years. Milan is buried at Hornet Cemetery in Hornet, Newton County, Missouri which is located only a short distance from his farm. Milan deeded two acres of land to the cemetery board of Hornet Cemetery, and it is said that several unknown soldiers of the Civil War are buried on this land in unmarked graves. His funeral service was held at the family home by the Rev. W. T. Wright of Sedalia.

On 12 February 1863 MARY E. TAWNEY (also spelled Taueney) became his bride of only twelve years. They were married in Dallas County, Iowa by W. M. Calfer, minister. Mary was born in Indiana on 7 December 1843 to HENRY and MARY TAWNEY. She died in childbirth on 8 April 1875 and is buried in Hornet Cemetery, as are several of her children. The 1860 Federal Census of Dallas County, Iowa shows that members of her family in Adel Township were her father, Henry, born ca. 1813 in Maryland; her mother, also named Mary, born ca. 1812 in Ohio; and brothers and sisters as follows: John (b. ca. 1840), James (b. ca. 1842), Margaret (b. ca. 1846 and whose married name was Aikes), Sarah A. (b. ca. 1848), Elias (b. ca. 1851), and Hugh (b. ca. 1854).

Milan and Mary's children were JAMES NELSON GILMAN, born 2 February 1864 in Dallas County, Iowa and died 10 September 1865, with burial at the Otterman Cemetery, Van Meter Township in Dallas County, Iowa. Milan had returned from serving in the Civil War a few months prior to his son's death, permitting him only a short time to enjoy his first-born. In my possession is a copy of a note written by Milan on 1 December 1865 stating, "I have this day bought of Gray and Stinson one set of Vermont marble grave stones - head stone about one feet six inches long and proportionable width and a small foot stone unlettered. Head stone to be inscribed as follows: James Nelson son of Milan A. and Mary E. Gilman Born February 2, 1864 Died September 10, 1865 Aged 1 yr. 7 mo. 8 dys, with round top and lamb to be delivered at the residence of Henry Tawney as soon as convenient for which I agree to pay the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents on delivery of said stone". Their second child, a daughter named NORA J. GILMAN, was born 20 May 1866 in Cass County, Missouri and died 29 November 1881, with burial at Hornet Cemetery, Missouri. BERTHA ISBELL GILMAN, born in 1868 in Cass County, Missouri, died as an infant on 13 June 1869 with burial believed to be in Dolan Twp., Cass County, Missouri. The family then spent a short time in Neosho County, Kansas. Nora J. is the only child listed on the 1870 Federal Census for that county. Later that same year they moved to Newton County, Missouri where their fourth child, FANNIE G. GILMAN, was born on 4 December 1870. She died 11 April 1885 and is buried at Hornet Cemetery at Hornet Missouri. Their next daughter, MARY ELLEN (GILMAN) GIETT, was their only child to live to adult life. She was born 4 February 1873 at home on the family homestead near Seneca, Missouri. Their last daughter, named VIOLA J. GILMAN, was also born there on 8 April 1875, being the same day as her mother's death. The infant only lived until 3 September 1875 and was buried next to her mother. Milan placed one common grave marker (tall and of white stone) at the Hornet Cemetery for his wife and three young daughters.

MARTHA FREMONT DOOLEY became his wife on 19 October 1876 in Newton County, Missouri. Martha was born to WILLIAM and ELIZABETH P. (CANNON) DOOLEY on 5 July 1856 in the state of Indiana. She passed away at the age of 60 on 11 March 1917 and is buried beside Milan at the Hornet Cemetery. Much information has been gathered on her parents and family, none of which I have had the opportunity to document as yet and as a result cannot be included in this book. Records do show that Martha had been a member of the Bethel Baptist Church for over forty years and that her father was a chaplain during the Civil War and had served as a Baptist minister in Indiana. Milan had joined the Methodist Church at Adel, Iowa at the age of 17 and according to his obituary had been a member of the Methodist Church near Seneca for over forty years. The majority of his descendants, however, do belong to the Baptist denomination, the strong influence evidently being Martha and her background.

Milan and Martha's children all survived to adult life and are as follows: GUY AUGUSTUS GILMAN, born 26 November 1877; JOHN WILLIAM GILMAN, born 15 March 1879; EFFIE MABLE (GILMAN) MITCHELL, born 18 February 1881; FRANCIS ANGUS GILMAN, born 20 February 1883; CORA ETHEL (GILMAN) VAUGHAN, born 1 February 1885; CHARLES CLARENCE GILMAN, born 31 March 1887; CARRIE LYDIA (GILMAN) WOODALL, born 17 March 1889; and CLAUDE ERNEST GILMAN, born 13 February 1891 and still living on the family homestead near Seneca, Missouri.

Milan first joined Company C, 39th Regiment of the Iowa Volunteer Infantry at the age of 18, enlisting on 11 August 1862 and mustering in on 27 August 1862 at Camp Burnside, Des Moines, Iowa. He was discharged 20 January 1863 at Cairo, Illinois due to illness, a fact for which we can probably be thankful since as history tells us, sickness took more lives during this war than war weapons did; and particularly after we read the historical sketch of the 39th Regiment. It states that "while the companies were in rendezvous at Des Moines, a few of the men were taken sick with measles, and, after their removal to Davenport, nearly three hundred men were attacked by that disease", and, "It is a notable fact that the mortality resulting from sickness was proportionately the largest in the early history of the regiment." This is in November and December of 1862. On 14 December 1862 the regiment arrived at Cairo, Illinois and on the 16th they left on a single steamboat for Columbus, Kentucky. At this point the commander, Colonel Cummings, records "we were for the next six months dropping men from our rolls, under the head of died or discharged". During Milan's term of service with this regiment, it was located in Tennessee and Mississippi, being engaged in the fierce battle at Parker's Cross Roads, Tennessee where several Union soldiers were killed, wounded and captured in battle with the forces of General Nathan B. Forrest, an outstanding Confederate soldier. Many soldiers were required to fight even during their convalescence but whether Milan did or was left behind in Cairo, Illinois we do not know for sure. He married a few weeks following his discharge but again enlisted the month after his son was born. He re-enlisted and was mustered in the same day, 21 March 1864, with the Second Battery Iowa Light Artillery, the same group that his brother, Francis, and brother-in-law, Tilghman H. Payne had enlisted in earlier in the war. Milan served until the end of the Civil War and was discharged 7 August 1865 in Davenport, Iowa. He kept a diary during nearly the first full year of this service and we can follow a day by day account of their activities. The day he enlisted the unit was stationed in Des Moines, Iowa. They left on 8 April 1864 and spent the year in Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Missouri. The historical sketch for the Second Battery shows that in February, 1865 (the same time that his personal diary ends) they were "transferred to the Gulf Department and went to New Orleans, and afterward to Mobile Bay, where it participated in the siege of Spanish Fort....(being) actively engaged every day, from the beginning of the siege to the capture of the fort. It then moved to Montgomery, and later to Selma, Ala., where it remained until late in July, when it was ordered to return to the State of Iowa for muster out..." In the diary Milan speaks of being ill with diphtheria (June 1864) and of some of the battles, particularly of the one outside Tupelo, Mississippi in July 1864 at which his brother was injured and captured. On Wednesday, July 13th, he records "Pontotoc, Mississippi

We are ready to leave here. We marched twenty miles and whipped the rebs, too. During the day our battery was in one of them - we first slayed them - it was before we got to Tupelo we whipped them and then we went onto town". On Thursday July 14 he states, "Tupelo, Mississippi - this morning we formed the line of battle. The rebs attacked us and we whipped them. We had to repulse them three times. Frank Gilman (and others he listed) were all grounded today. The battle is now quiet." The next day in Tupelo he notes "this morning finds me well. We had some fighting last night - we are ready for them this morning - they are coming again I guess. We never unhitched last night. We are fighting them then we left - they followed us up and now they have commenced on us again. There was another boy out of the battery wounded today. We have gone into camp. We whipped them on the town creek" (referring to Old Town Creek). On Saturday, July 16 he records, "this morning finds me well. We have gone into camp again. The rebs are firing on our rear this evening. We are in Mississippi yet. We had nothing but fresh pork and water for supper". And on Sunday, July 17 he states, "Tallahatchie, Mississippi - this evening finds me well. We live fat now - I had coffee and a piece of meat for breakfast and coffee and meat and potatoes for supper".

I was named after Nadene and still look forward to the happy day when I will have the opportunity to meet her. My birth certificate shows my name spelled as hers, but in a daring mood to take part in a Junior High School "fad" I changed the name to read Nadine. That shows how brave I was as a brand new teenager.

Guy and Etta had a great interest in the family and started recording the Gilman family. Guy corresponded often with members of the family, enjoyed visiting them and having them visit him. They lived next door to the home Guy was born and raised in.

JOHN WILLIAM GILMAN

Son of MILAN AUGUSTUS and MARTHA FREMONT (DOOLEY) GILMAN. William was born on 15 March 1879 on the family homestead near Seneca, Newton County, Missouri. The majority of the family nicknamed him "Willie". William moved his family around quite a bit, being restless by nature. After his second marriage, we find him homesteading in New Mexico, then returning to Missouri via Rocky Ford, Colorado and Shawnee, Oklahoma, then farming in Baca County, Colorado, with his final move in 1938 to Salem, Oregon where he passed away on Thursday, 4 August 1949 of an heart attack. He is buried at Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem, Marion County, Oregon and was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Salem. His farm was east of town on Route 6 and I remember well all of the family gatherings at "Grandpa and Grandma's"...the prune trees, the gooseberries, sliding down the hay in the hay loft, the creek separating the living quarters from the pastures and hay fields, and Grandma always cooking over the big wood stove while we brought water in from the well for her. And then the sadder days when she was so frail and we sat on the edge of her bed to visit with her. This dear, sweet lady was NELLIE BILKE, William's second wife.

William was first married to LAURA WILKINS on 30 July 1899 in Newton County, Missouri. Laura was born 26 October 1879 and died 12 October 1900 with burial at the Burkhart Cemetery near Racine, Missouri. The cause of death is given as "dropsy". Her mother's name was MARY C. WILKINS.

On 14 June 1903 William married NELLIE BILKE in Seneca, Newton County, Missouri. Nellie was born to HERMAN and NANCY (PIERCE) BILKE on 19 November 1884 at the Bilke home (which was in the family just under 100 years) on Warrens Branch Creek about six miles north of Seneca and fourteen miles south of Joplin, Missouri. They were also married at the Bilke home by A. B. Lester, Justice of Peace. Nellie passed away after a long illness on 6 February 1958, with burial at the Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem, Marion County, Oregon. The Bilkes came to the United States about 1856, first settling in Wisconsin. After the Civil War was over, several of them came to Missouri. Nancy was born in Georgia and was brought to Missouri by her Uncle Bill when her parents died.

Milan's brother, Albert, tells how he was suppose to get the neighbor lady when his mother needed help with the baby's birth, but he was so bashful he wouldn't go, and how she did everything to bribe him. Milan is the namesake of his two grandfathers, Milan Augustus Gilman and Herman Bilke.

Milan married BERTHA EMMA SCHAFFNER on 13 September 1933 in Lamar, Colorado. Bertha was born 12 September 1915 at Moorewood, Oklahoma. She is the daughter of FREDRICK JOHN and KATHERINE (SHIRLEY) SCHAFFNER. I would like to reminisce here for a moment since Milan and Bertha are my parents. What do I remember when I think of my childhood? How protected and loved I was... how I have no recollection of the Second World War until D-Day as I was so cared for and provided for, not by great wealth, but by my father running a farm and orchard and at the same time working at the Thomas Kay Woolen Mill in town, and later, my mother working in an office...how my sister and I "goofed off" by listening to the soap operas on radio instead of picking the fruit on the farm to be taken to the cannery each night...how God and church and praying was as natural as eating and sleeping...and how I hated getting a twig off the cherry trees, big enough to be used as a switch when I was naughty...and how I wondered how my sister could shed such big tears so fast and I could squeeze my eyes and none would appear to show that I was sorry, too...how it seemed my brother was sick all the time in his earlier years causing my mother to tenderly hover over him and worry about him, always protecting him and how all of this drew me to be particularly close to him...how on Friday the 13th my folks went out for dinner on their 13th Wedding Anniversary and we had to call them home just as they sat down to dinner because my sister fell on her bicycle...how I loved to sit with the grownups and listen to them talk of the "old days" with stories such as the big dust storm on Easter Sunday in 1935 which inundated the plains area from Canada to Mexico and from the Rocky Mountains east to the borders of states as Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas and Eastern Texas, and how the drought and grasshopper plague followed causing my father and the others to lose their crops and livestock. One time I asked Dad to tell me about our farms in Colorado as I was only three years old when we moved to Oregon. This is how he described it. "We lived on three different rented farms in Colorado, the last one was 670 acres. In addition to the drought and dust we had a plague of grasshoppers which ate most of the crops the drought and dust didn't get. I went about 150 miles from home to work in the wheat harvest. Mom and you girls stayed home. Mom milked the cows and took care of all the livestock, and also put out poison to kill the grasshoppers, which now sounds almost impossible for her to do. The crops we raised were called sorgums such as milo maize and cane, also broom corn used in making brooms. We didn't raise beef cattle but had fourteen milk cows plus calves, and six horses. We also had hops and chickens. We sold four of the horses, the other two died. Two of the cows also died, plus some calves. We sold the other twelve cows and their calves on a Sunday morning for a total price of $100.00. A week later we were on our way to Oregon. We left our farm machinery and some household goods in Colorado when we left, selling the lot of it for about $50.00." I can remember mother telling that Dad said if his favorite cow, Bess, died he would pack up and leave. She died, he left. Also, I can remember as a child going through the family album and seeing the pictures with the horrible black sky and the approaching dust and sand and how my parents assured me that we had been safe. We had been visiting my Grandpa and Grandma Schaffner and were just ready to leave when the sky turned very dark, and so we all huddled together in the basement and then stayed overnight with them...but then there were funny stories related by the adults, too, with my mother being kidded often because she was so afraid of mice and snakes. One time Dad, his brother Clyde and two of mother's brothers were working on the windmill. First, a lizard ran across the floor and mother and her sister-in-law started yelling so the men sent Clyde, who was about twelve, in to see what was wrong. A few minutes later they started yelling again so the men ignored them only later to find that a bull snake was chasing the lizard and that the ladies were standing on chairs trying to kill the snake...and how vivid is my memory of the day in 1940 when my Uncle Harold drove up to the house and before he said a word, mother started crying because she just knew something terrible had happened to Dad and how Uncle Harold explained to her that when Dad returned home he would not have one finger on his left hand and considering the accident at the mill, how really fortunate we were that it was not more serious. Mother's childhood was a very simple life with each of the children working on the farm as soon as they were old enough. They made "mud pies" by the hours because they didn't have any toys. German was spoken exclusively in the home until the children learned English in their schools. When they needed clothes, their father would go to town and buy them and they wore the clothes even if they did not fit. When they were older they got to order their shoes and dresses from catalogues. Mother never had her hair cut until she was about sixteen years old. Her mother is still living in Colorado and although I never had the opportunity to know her well as a child, I do remember our motor trips to that area to visit the relatives, and my memory of Grandma was that she very seldom spoke but always smiled and was very beautiful. When I visit her as an adult, I see the same person that I saw as a child. Grandpa was more outgoing and always told us stories.

I often wonder what my children will remember of their childhood and only hope that they are fond memories, as are mine.

Also, they enjoy poetry of which Roger writes very well. At their wedding, they shared with friends and family, a booklet titled "From Romance to Intimacy, the autobiography of a relationship". Within this booklet are their feelings and thoughts penned at various times of their courtship. I would like to share with you, with Roger and Naomi's permission, a journal entry which I interpreted as a thunderous whisper beseeching all the world's attention.

Love is an attitude toward everything. Attitudes are "processes" not "things," and exist only in expression. Love exists only in loving. Intimacy is a process, not a state of being.

If loving is an attitude toward the whole world, we are not really lovers if we love only one person. Loving one person is a need love. Needing to receive love is not the same as needing to give love. The intensity of love is not proved by exclusiveness. If we are giving persons, we give to all. When we love only one, it is because we are after ego support.

Erotic love is exclusive within its realm, for complete intimacy is possible with only one person. But there are other ways we can give love. Erotic love does not exclude the other loves: Friendship, Affection, and Charity.

Love of one means love of all, love of all means of each.

Nancy Jane first married TILGHMAN HOWARD PAYNE on 23 October 1861 by J. H. Brown, Justice of Peace, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, according to her obituary. However, her marriage license shows 2 October 1861 which I believe to be more accurate as her obituary also states that Tilghman volunteered for service during the Civil War on their 1st Wedding Anniversary, and war records show that he was mustered in on October 4th, having enlisted on 17 September 1862.

Tilghman served in the 2nd Iowa Battery, receiving an honorable discharge at the close of the war but came home to live but three weeks, passing away August, 1865. He was with the Light Artillery of the Second Battery, and according to the Iowa State Department of History and Archives, the Battery again distinguished itself at the battle of Corinth, Mississippi on 4 October 1862. They were engaged in the whole of the Vicksburg campaign in 1863, then marching to Jackson, Mississippi and participating in that siege until the city was evacuated by the Confederates on 16 July 1863. Further accounts of the Battery have been outlined in accounts for his two brothers-in-law, Francis Marion Gilman and Milan Augustus Gilman, with whom he served. He was mustered out 7 August 1865 at Davenport, Iowa.

Tilghman, the son of WILLIAM W. and MAHALATH (HAWORTH) PAYNE was born 7 March 1841 in Indiana, died 30 August 1865 with burial at Otterman Cemetery near Van Meter, Dallas County, Iowa. He and Nancy Jane had one son, EDWARD HOWARD PAYNE, born 18 December 1862.

Nancy Jane remained with Tilghman's parents, later meeting her second husband, ISAAC D. NEFF. They were married 3 June 1867 in Adel, Iowa by J. Perkins, County Judge. CHARLES EMERY GILMAN

Son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 22 November 1848 in Cook County, Illinois. He was the last surviving child of John and Catherine, passing away at the age of 87 years at his home on 8 September 1936. Burial is at the Moline Cemetery in Moline, Kansas.

Charles was first married to MARY CATHERINE DEVANEY on 2 August 1868 in Cass County, Missouri by J. Henry Denter, Minister. Mary Catherine was born 24 August 1852 in Tennessee, the daughter of B. J. DEVANEY. She died on 2 March 1897, the cause thought to have been tuberculosis, the funeral services being held at their home with Rev. J. D. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. She is also buried at the Moline Cemetery in Moline, Kansas.

Their children were JOHN E., born 30 November 1870; CORA BELLE (GILMAN) EASLEY, born 24 April 1874; MARY ALICE (GILMAN) SIDENER MORLAN, born 26 March 1876; HATTIE JANE (GILMAN) COLVIN TURNER, born 6 January 1878; BENNIE GILMAN, born 18 June 1882 in Elk County, Kansas, passed away 19 September 1883 with burial at the Moline Cemetery, Moline, Kansas; FRED, born 4 April 1884; LEVI, born 22 July 1887, ALBERT A., born 17 May 1889; and OLA INEZ (GILMAN) ANDERSON HOEFLE, born 24 July 1892.

After Mary Catherine's death, Charles married ELIZABETH A. McCLINTOCK on 19 August 1898 in Howard, Elk County, Kansas by Henry M. Nichols, Probate Judge. She was born ca. 1849 and was of Moline, Kansas at the time of their marriage. Elizabeth died 2 March 1929. Two of her children by a previous marriage was D. B. McCLINTOCK of Butler, Missouri, and ANNA ROBERTSON, of Howard, Kansas.

Charlie's obituary states that he came to Kansas in the spring of 1871 and filed claim one mile northwest of where Moline now stands. He got his mail at the Bloomfield Post Office where W. A. Fouts was postmaster. A little later he sent his children to the 144 schoolhouse where Belle Fouts was the teacher. He moved from the farm into Moline in 1919. His farm home is still standing. Charles came to Washington Territory for eight months during the fall of 1886, but he did not like the area and returned to Moline, Kansas in October of 1887. He had leased his farm in Moline to his brother, Francis Marion, during his stay in the West.

All of Charles' children survived him, excepting Bennie, which is quite amazing since he lived to be 87 years, 9 months, and 16 days. At the time of his death he had twenty four grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. Two of his children still living are the two youngest, Albert A. of Salem, Oregon, and Ola Hoefle of Chanute, Kansas.

Records show that at the time of his death John E., Mary Alice and Hattie lived in Olympia, Washington although Hattie had been with her father during his illness. Cora was living in Borger, Texas, Fred had been living with his father for six months prior to Charlie's death, Levi and Albert were in Stillwater, Oklahoma, and Ola was living in Chanute, Kansas.

Charles was a successful farmer in Moline, Kansas and was very active in the Methodist Church there. Since he was only 16 at the close of the Civil War, Charles was not enlisted in the service of his country. To my knowledge, none of his sons were in the service either. Mary Catherine Devaney's sister, ALICE (DEVANEY) LOOKER lived in Columbus, Ohio.

At the age of 25, John married MARY STEVANNA HULL, age 29. Their wedding date was 4 February 1896 in Elk County, Kansas. They were married by Rev. James E. Smith, Methodist Minister. Mary Stevanna, known to the family as Vannie, was born on 10 July 1866 in Fayette Township, Vigo County, Indiana. Vannie's mother died giving birth to Vannie. The father's sister, MARGARET J. HULL, raised the children when the mother died. The family moved from Indiana to Elk County, Kansas 1870-1873.

John E. and Vannie came to Tumwater, Washington in April 1905, following the birth of all four of their children.

John spent two weeks in Missouri visiting GUY GILMAN, son of MILAN AUGUSTUS, in November 1950. John and Guy were first cousins and during that November, John celebrated his 80th birthday and Guy celebrated his 73rd birthday at a family dinner with 39 present and 80 candles on the cake. ALBERT ORANGE GILMAN

Son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 9 July 1851 in Dallas County, Iowa. He died 9 October 1914 at the age of 63 years and 3 months, and is buried at Black Cemetery in Lincoln County, Oklahoma, near Stroud, Oklahoma.

George W. Burgess, Minister, married Albert and SARAH JANE JILES on 2 January 1870 in Cass County, Missouri. Sarah was born 1 January 1854 in Arkansas and died in the Spring, 1928. She is buried beside her husband at Black Cemetery near Stroud, Oklahoma.

Their children were ARCADA (also spelled Arkatie) (GILMAN) BERNARD, born 23 June 1871; CHARLES ALBERT, born 1873; EMMA (GILMAN) CLINGENPEEL (also given as Clinging), born 1875; BERTHA MAY (GILMAN) WINTERMEYER, born 1878; ROY GILMAN, born 1880; and CLYDE ORANGE GILMAN, born 1884.

Albert Orange was a farmer. He homesteaded five miles north of Stroud, Oklahoma in about 1890. This is the same year that the Territorial Government was established with Guthrie as its first capital. For several years, most of Oklahoma was included in what was called the Indian Territory, which continued until about 1893 when the section was divided into the Indian Territory and the Oklahoma Territory, the latter being thrown open to white settlements. After researching the settlement of the various counties and noting where Albert did settle, I feel he probably was a part of the "Run of 1891" when the Iowa, Sac, Fox and Pottawatomie, Shawnee Reservations were opened to form Lincoln and Pottawatomie Counties. Since Oklahoma was not admitted as a state until 1907, records prior to that date are difficult to obtain. As a result, I feel there may be some corrections, and hopefully many additions, to this family as research is continued.

The "Moline Republican", a weekly newspaper from Moline, Kansas, noted on 2 January 1891 "Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Gilman celebrated New Years by inviting a number of friends to dinner." On 14 August 1891, it noted "A. O. Gilman and daughter came up from Stillwater, Oklahoma last Saturday and expect to spend several weeks here. Mr. Gilman reports good crops in the new territory." Again on 14 April 1894 it mentions "A. O. Gilman, who is located on a claim in Oklahoma, visited his relatives at Moline this week." He also visited them around 14 December of the same year. Then on 18 October 1895 it states "Mrs. Albert Gilman was here last week visiting with her friends and relatives. She and her family are living in the southeast part of Sac and Fox country."

Sarah Jane Jiles' mother died in Arkansas when Sarah was very small. She had one brother. A story is told that when the Civil War broke out, Sarah's father placed the two children on a horse and led this horse on foot, by night, up into Missouri. It is there then that she met and eventually married Albert.

BETSEY C. (GILMAN) GASTON

Daughter of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. She was known to the family as Betsey; however, one document lists her name as Elizabeth C. Born 12 September 1853 in Dallas County, Iowa. She died in about 1922. Her resting place is thought to be in Kansas, perhaps near Galena.

Documentary records and locating of living descendants for Betsey and Eli have been very elusive. I apologize for lack of information on this entire family.

Betsey married, only eleven days before her 14th birthday, to ELI M. GASTON on 1 September 1867 in Cass County, Missouri. They were married by F. J. Ferrel, minister. Eli was born about 1846. His birthplace is either in Missouri or in Illinois. At this time I feel Missouri to be more accurate.

The 1880 census for Dayton Township, Newton County, Missouri shows their children to be MARY J., age 12; KATY M., age 10; LETTIE, age 7; JOHN D., age 4; EVA OLIVE, age 2, with all of them born in Missouri, according to the census. Mary J. was born in Cass County, Missouri, the family is then shown on the 1870 census for Chetopa Township, Neosho County, Kansas. Sometime later that same year evidently, the family moved to Newton County, Missouri. At what point in time the family left Missouri again has not been determined, but it is known that Eli farmed in Newton County, Missouri for many years.

MARY JENNIE (GASTON) FITZGERALD

Daughter of ELI M. and BETSEY C. (GILMAN) GASTON. Born about 1868 in Cass County, Missouri. She died in the earlier part of 1943 near Chetopa, Kansas.

The following is a letter written by Jennie to her cousin, Carrie Lehman, on 28 April 1935. She was 67 at the time and her husband was 73. This letter tells us as much as we know about the family at present. My greatest appreciation to Ruth Lehman for sharing it with us.

EVA OLIVE (GASTON) MILLER

Olive was the daughter of ELI M. and BETSEY C. (GILMAN) GASTON. Born about 1877 possibly in Newton County, Missouri, she died in March, 1961.

Olive married MILTON MILLER, born February 1870. Olive was known to have lived in Harrison, Arkansas in 1939 and in Green Forest, Arkansas in 1950. She and Milton had three daughters and one son. One daughter lived in Joplin, Missouri and one daughter married the county treasurer in Harrison, Arkansas. She filled his term of office upon his death and later was elected county clerk twice.

No information has been gathered on the other children of Eli and Betsey Gaston. Hopefully someone sometime will add memories to this entire family.

SAMUEL D. GILMAN

Son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 18 October 1856 in Dallas County, Iowa. Samuel is buried at Emmet, Idaho, near Boise, passing away late 1909.

This family has also been most elusive up to this moment. No direct contact has been made with any descendants, but the following data has been gathered from various documents.

Samuel married EMMA Z. WELLS. She died in the late 1930's at Hood River, Oregon. Records show that she was still living in 1935, though she was very feeble.

Samuel and Emma's children were MILDRED M.; MILTON M. GILMAN; JAMES E. GILMAN; SAMUEL L. GILMAN; and IZORA P. (GILMAN) MAKLEY.

MILDRED died mid-1920's in Portland, Oregon and is buried at Rose City Cemetery. According to her cousin, she married JOHN VAN DORN who died in June 1947. However, a MILLIE M. DOUGLAS, of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, is listed on estate papers for Samuel D. Gilman on 28 July 1924. Clarification of her married name has not been received as yet. She had no children.

MILTON's wife's name was IDA and their only child was named HAZEL. On 28 July 1924 he is shown in Hood River, Hood River County, Oregon but in 1939, he was believed to have lived in Sandy, Oregon.

JAMES E. is listed in Goodrich, Adams County, Idaho on 28 July 1924. In 1939 it is believed that he lived in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho. Nothing is known of his family as yet.

SAMUEL L. is listed in Hood River, Hood River County, Oregon on 28 July 1924. No information on his family has been gathered to-date.

IZORA P. (GILMAN) MAKLEY and her husband had two boys, both deceased, and one girl named HELEN. Helen married a COL. CLARENCE CAREY who is retired from the Army and was last known to be in Michigan. I believe their daughter's name was MARILYN. Izora is shown in Hood River, Hood River County, Oregon on 28 July 1924.

Samuel D. Gilman settled in Star, Idaho in the 1880's. He served in the Philippine Islands during the Spanish-American War (1898). On 10 March 1900 he sold 40 acres of his land in Ada County, Idaho. On 26 August 1901 he sold another 40 3/4 acres. As administratrix of the estate of Samuel D., Emma sold 80 and 80/100 acres at a public sale, receiving $6,400.00 as the highest bid, which was 90% of the appraised value, recorded January 1910. On 9 March 1910, the court ruled that Emma be granted as a homestead, filed as community property, two lots in Block One of the townsite of Ada, along with the water rights. On 16 May 1933, she sold these two lots to her daughter, Izora, for the sum of $100.00. At the same time Emma was granted the homestead, she received "1 brown mare, weight about 1200 lbs., about 7 years old, valued in inventory at $100.00, 1 young colt, now two years old, valued in inventory at $20.00, 1 red milk cow, valued in inventory at $40.00, 1 buggy and single harness, valued in inventory at $20.00, household goods consisting of organ, stoves, beds, bedding, chairs, dishes, carpets, pictures, house furniture of all kinds, valued in inventory at $150.00.

Again, I am hoping memories of members of this family will be forwarded eventually to help locate Samuel D. Gilman's descendants.

JOHN MICHAEL GILMAN

Son of JOHN and CATHERINE (LINDSEY) GILMAN. Born 23 December 1858 in Adel, Dallas County, Iowa. Death 27 May 1929 with burial at the Alpine Cemetery, Benton County, Alpine, Oregon.

On 6 March 1877 John M. married AMANDA JANE NORTH at Racine, Missouri. She was born 23 January 1860 at Forest Grove, Missouri to FRANK and SAVANNAH NORTH. She passed away 4 May 1925 at Bellfountain (originally named Dusty), Oregon and is buried beside her husband in Alpine Cemetery. Amanda, and her two sisters, were orphaned when she was about four years old, it is said.

Their children were WALTER, born 18 December 1878; CHARLES, born 16 June 1881; JESSEY L. GILMAN, a daughter born 8 April 1883 in Moline, Kansas and died 11 April 1884 in Moline; PEARL AMANDA (GILMAN) RAY RICHEY, born 8 February 1887; ROBERT JOHN, born 16 January 1889; NELLIE G. GILMAN, born 19 March 1891 and died 7 August 1891 with burial in Eugene, Oregon near the University of Oregon campus. John and Amanda raised their family in the Methodist religion.

In the early 1880's, John Michael was in Ford County, Kansas driving a freight wagon for a firm in Dodge City. Sometime after his marriage he moved to Colorado, near Rifle, where his youngest son was born. Seattle, Washington had a disastrous fire in 1889. It probably took some time for the news of the disaster to reach John, but shortly after he heard about it he decided to come West and be a carpenter, helping to rebuild the City of Seattle. But by the time he arrived in that area in the early 1890's, there was no work. Following this he homesteaded in what was known as Dusty, Oregon, later renamed Bellfountain. He cleared and planted an orchard but could barely make a living. His own assessment of this homestead was amusingly made to others as "I kept going (from Seattle) until I found the worse possible place to settle". His homestead is now a beautiful park on the Alcae River in the mountains about thirty to forty miles south of Salem, Oregon, then west. In crossing the Green River in Wyoming on their trip from Rifle, Colorado to the West, John was driving the big team and Amanda was driving the small team. The cattle were being driven by the older boys. It was snowing hard but John managed to cross the river with his team. However, when Amanda started to cross, the smaller team were swept off their feet. The wagon tongue was such that it "turned" (jammed) without tipping over the wagon. The weather was so bad that John could not see her problem from where he was on the bank, but soon he became worried as to why she had not crossed yet. He went back in the river and saw Amanda standing, holding up the horses' heads out of the water. The big team wouldn't hook up to the tongue of the small wagon so he tied a rope onto it and pulled them across.

WALTER JOSEPH GILMAN

Son of JOHN MICHAEL and AMANDA JANE (NORTH) GILMAN. Born 18 December 1878 in Racine, Missouri. He died of burns to his body on 20 May 1963 and is buried at Northport, Washington.

Not too much is known of Walter's first four marriages. He did have a son by his first marriage, who died at age three of diabetes, and stepchildren thru his second marriage. His third wife died of burns and it is believed that they did not have any children. Walter also had stepchildren thru his fourth marriage. He and his fourth wife were separated in 1935 or 1936 and she died in Alaska in 1938. EDITH BERYL ANDRICH became his fifth wife on 20 May 1939 at Northport, Washington and th remained together until his death. Edith was born 19 May 1910 at Lyman, Washington, near Sedro Wooley. She presently lives in Northport, Washington. Her parents are CHARLES FRANKLIN and NELLIE (McGRIFF) ANDRICH.

Walter ran away from home at the age of 14 "to work on a ship as a sailor". He later did not like this too well so he left the ship as soon as he earned enough money to find a job on a farm as a laborer. He later became a foreman on the farm. Walter served in World War I from 12 February 1918 to 4 January 1919. He served in France with Battery E as a private first class from 9 November 1918 to the 4th of January 1919.

CHARLES ARTHUR GILMAN

Son of JOHN MICHAEL and AMANDA (NORTH) GILMAN. Born 16 June 1881 in Racine, Missouri. He passed away 8 July 1959 at the I.O.O.F. Home in Portland, Oregon. He is buried beside his parents in the Alpine Cemetery, Benton County, Alpine, Oregon.

Charles never married. He took care of his parents for many years, selling the family ranch after their deaths. He then moved to Portland, Oregon and lived at the I.O.O.F. Lodge until his death.

PEARL AMANDA (GILMAN) RAY RICHEY

Daughter of JOHN MICHAEL and AMANDA (NORTH) GILMAN. Born 8 February 1887 in Ashland, Kansas, Clark County. Her death was 21 December 1921 with burial at the Pendleton Cemetery, Pendleton, Oregon.

Her first husband was JAMES RAY by whom her only child, JOHN RAY, was born. John lived in Opportunity, Washington most recently. James and Pearl's marriage was dissolved. Pearl's second marriage was to JOHN RICHEY and they lived in Pendleton, Oregon.

JOHN RAY was one of only two grandchildren born to John Michael and Amanda Gilman, and the only one to reach adult life. To my knowledge John Ray did not have any children.

ROBERT JOHN GILMAN

Son of JOHN MICHAEL and AMANDA (NORTH) GILMAN. Born 16 January 1889 near Rifle, Colorado. Robert is presently living in Portland, Oregon and is one of four surviving grandchildren of John and Catherine (Lindsey) Gilman at this writing.

On 12 February 1924 Robert married NETTA "NETTIE" (VAN DORN) McDONALD in Portland, Oregon. They recently celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in Portland. Nettie is the daughter of Mr. Van Dorn and NETTA (WINING) VAN DORN. It is stated that Nettie's brother, JOHN VAN DORN, married MILDRED GILMAN, daughter of SAMUEL D. GILMAN and cousin to Robert John Gilman.

Nettie's daughter by her first marriage, ANN (McDONALD) NIEDRINGHAUS, was sixteen years old when Robert and her mother were married. Ann was a nurse but in 1955 she suffered a brain hemorrhage which left her paralyzed on her right side. She is presently living in Vancouver, Washington. Her daughter, JOYCE (NIEDRINGHAUS) ENNS, an only child, teaches Junior High level in Camas, Washington and has two sons, ERIC and MICHAEL.

There were no schools for John and Amanda's children to be educated in so they became self-taught, having the Bible as their main source for reading.

Robert John Gilman, being the last surviving member of the John Michael Gilman family, and having no sons to carry the Gilman name, is the last to bear this surname in his family.
