

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Early 2020, I joined NH Historical Society so I could hire their researcher to work on my brick walls. I've been working on my HARDY, HARIE, HARTY, HARDAV family line for 60 years and I'd like to complete this work. The main source has always been HARDY and HARDIE, Past and Present by Claude Hardy, published in 1935.

[REDACTED] VERNIS L. HARDY is descended from Dr Samuel Hardy of Beverly, MA. Dr Samuel Hardy's oldest son Robert ^{1675-17??} seems to have vanished but managed to leave children anyway. A researcher into Gilmanton records has discovered a Robert and Theophilus Hardy as early as 1727-28 with the following; "Theophilus Hardy was a proprietor 1727-28. According to original town papers (printed in NH State Papers Vol XXVII p 87) Copied from Vol I of Gilmanton Town Records, Robert Hardy had land formerly deeded to Theophilus" Robert Hardie #5 in 1st range

Therefore I'm hoping your Society would have more information including cemetery, marriage. As you know, Belknap County has a dearth of early records and my gap is substantial.

Thank you for assistance. EMMA GARDNER
