1785.

March 10, 1785, a Committee was chosen to divide the town into school districts, also voted to raise £150 to support the schools the ensuing year. It was further agreed that all the orders that were given for the cattle which Capt. Hall received, excepting Dr. Hill's and Capt. Summersbee Gilman's orders, should be received by the Constables, and that their orders be received also, on condition that Dr. Hill give the full contents of his execution to the town, which is in Col. Davis' hands free of expense, and that Capt. Summersbee Gilman deliver to the Selectmen all the Continental money of the new emission, which is in his hands. On the 28th of March, the town voted to accept the report of the Committee to set off the school districts, 14 in number. Sundry persons petitioned to have their portion of the school money, which was granted. Four soldiers, six months men, were paid for their services in the War. Stephen Leavitt, Jeremiah Sanborn, Moses Emerson, Benjamin Burnham, Josiah Avery, William Morrison, Ebenezer Clark, Henry Plummer and Eliphalet Griffin settled this year.

The Articles in the Warrant at the Annual Meeting, March 10, to bring in votes for President and Representative to the State Legislature, were passed over without action. At a meeting, August 10, brought in votes for County Treasurer and Recorder of Deeds: David Edgerly and Edward Fox, two of the citizens, died in November.

At the annual meeting, March 9, it was agreed to repair the bridge over the Suncook River near Evans' Mills, and a Committee was raised to visit the School Districts, and to make alterations as might be thought proper. Peaslee Badger and Andrew Page suffered loss by fire, on account of which their taxes were abated. At a meeting, Sept. 4, the town voted to complete making the Road laid out by Simeon Hoyt's. The town met also on the 4th of Dec. On an Article in the Warrant, to see if the town would accept the plan proposed by a Committee of the Legislature for the emission of paper money, 35 voted in the negative, and 5 in favor. It was also agreed to pay 10 dollars bounty for every grown wolf, and 5 dollars for every whelp which might be caught the ensuing year. The selectmen were directed to procure a cow for the use of Abner Evans. Nathaniel Ladd and his family were supported by the town, and the widow Sarah Gilman had her taxes abated. Daniel Grant, Joseph Clarke, Hibbard Morrill, David Meder, Aaron Moses, and Dudley Prescott, were settlers of this year.

In 1787, March 8th, the Selectmen were instructed to petition the inhabitants of Pittsfield, to alter or turn the road round Catamount. An article to see if the town would pay Lieut. Eastman, John Fox, and Stephen Dudley, Jr., for seven guns taken away from them at Winter Hill, in 1775, by order of Gen. Stark, was voted in the negative; it being considered the duty of the State to furnish fire arms in time of war, and to remunerate any persons whose guns were taken from them for the service. £150 were raised for the schools this year; and the inhabitants of the upper Parish were taxed to Rev. Messrs. Powers and Smith, it being understood that they should enjoy the preaching of these two settled Ministers of the town in proportion to what they should pay, and at such places as they might choose. Votes were unanimously cast for Joseph Pierce, Register of Deeds. The votes cast for President of the State under the new Constitution, were for his Excellency John Sullivan, Esq., 175; for Senators, Ebenezer Thompson, Esq. 187, Ebenezer Smith, Esq. 187.

The town held its annual meeting in 1788, on the 13th of March, when it was voted that the Ministers preach in the upper Parish as last year; that each man work two days upon the road in the summer, and one in the winter; that ten dollars bounty be given for full grown wolves, five dollars for whelps heads, and £9 per head for catamounts, if killed within two months, and £6 if killed after that time. Col. Joseph Badger, Jr., Col. Joseph Greely, and John Shepard, Esq., were appointed to ascertain the line on the North East side of the School lot, and citizens dissented, refusing from conscientious scruples to sign it, yet none of them refused to be taxed to maintain the struggle for independence; but in their remonstrance to the Government, in which they assign the reasons of their dissent, they express their willingness to be assessed to aid in bearing the expense of the War. Many of them afterwards caught the Revolutionary spirit, and actually entered the Army.

The following is a copy of the Test Act passed by the American Congress, and presented to the people in every town for their signatures, together with the names of those citizens of Gilmanton, who signed it. The act was adopted by Congress, April 12, 1776, and signed and returned Aug. 28, 1776, certified by Edward Smith and John Sanborn, Selectmen.

ASSOCIATION TEST PAPER.

"We, the subscribers, do hereby solemnly engage and promise that we will, to the utmost of our power, at the risk of our lives and fortunes, with arms oppose the hostile proceedings of the British Fleets and Armies against the United Colonies."

tal Army, and that the town will pay them wages for the time they are out, in addition to what they may draw from the State. And it was further agreed that those who are disposed to class among themselves and furnish soldiers, shall be exempted from any penalty to which the town may be exposed, in case soldiers are not obtained.

In September of this year, a portion of the militia was called into the service, consisting of Peter Gilman, Ensign, Nicholas Gilman, 3d Sergeant, Reuben Perkins, Samuel Sibley, son of William Sibley, John Chase, son of James Chase, James Allen, Edward Bean and Joseph Crosby. The service commenced Sept. 6, 1781, and they were discharged Nov. 6, 1781, having been out two months.

Six hundred pounds were put into the hands of Joseph Badger to carry on the suit between Moses Stevens and the town.

The marriages recorded this year were 8. The settlers were Benjamin Woodbridge Dean, Abraham Folsom, George Montgomery, Ezekiel Gilman, Benjamin Stevens, Daniel Evans, Stephen Gilman, Josiah Weeks, Elisha Swett, John Bradbury, Daniel Gale, Samuel Folsom Gilman and Nathaniel Webster.

1782.

On the 7th of January, 1782, a Committee consisting of Gen. Joseph Badger, Rev. William Parsons, Capt. John Moody, Dea. Stephen Dudley, Col. Antipas Gilman, Col. Joseph Badger and Benjamin Woodbridge Dean, was appointed to examine the Constitution formed by the Convention at Concord, and on the 17th the town voted to reject the form of Government recommended by this Constitution. At the annual town meeting, on the 14th of March, it was agreed that Col. Ebenezer Smith should be called upon to sell the two lots voted him by the Proprietors of Gilmanton, to build half the bridge over the Winnipissiogee River, above Abraham Folsom's Mills. The Independence of the United States having been now acknowledged by Great Britain, the town on the 24th of June voted not to furnish further soldiers for the War. Voted to leave it to Col. Ebenezer Smith and Joseph Roberts to say what the town shall allow the men who hired George Montgomery to serve as a Continental soldier, for the town in the last War. Voted to give to Ezekiel Gilman £6 yearly, during his service in the War for the town. Moses

Stevens recovered judgment against the town in the suit pending between them. Voted to accept the Report of Col. Smith, pay his attendance and 8 bowls of toddy! and pay Montgomery what was paid Nehemiah Leavitt.

The following soldiers not mentioned in the preceding lists, were in the service of the town, at some time during the war; but the period of their service is not defined by any documents now at hand. Their names are Nehemiah Leavitt, Henry Danforth, William Hamblet, James Head, James Horn, George Montgomery, Jonathan Taylor, Jabez James, Joseph Ham, Ammi Choat, John Cotton, Joseph Morrill, Robinson Smith, Benjamin Libbey, and London Daily, a colored man. These make the whole number of men, including officers and soldiers, 125; 3 captains, 2 lieutenants, 2 ensigns, 4 sergeants, and 4 corporals.

The town of Gilmanton lost 7 men in the Army during the War, among whom was Joses Moulton, who was killed instantly by a ball which pierced through his body, and John Dow, who was wounded, and afterwards by fording a river, took cold and died. John Taylor, who was with them, narrowly escaped. A ball from the enemy passed through his coat, and grazed his elbow; and by another, the breech of his gun was shot away. A very liberal spirit was manifested by the town towards the families of the soldiers. Provision was made for their support and comfort in the absence of their husbands, and in the more severe and toilsome campaigns, the town voted the soldiers additional pay.

The expense of the War to the town was great. So rapid was the depreciation of paper money, that the Continental War tax, made Nov. 8, 1779, was £1119 1s. 0d. In May, 1780, the tax made for the War was £27412 14s., and in September, 1781, it was £33249 4s. This caused great distress and embarrassment in the Army, as well as among the people at home. "Four months' pay of a soldier would not buy his family a bushel of wheat, and the pay of a Colonel would not purchase oats for his horse." But they submitted to the distress and privation without a murmur, being buoyed up continually by the hope of liberty and independence.

The inhabitants of the town also submitted to the oppressive taxation cheerfully, and, finally, with great unanimity. Although when the Test Act was presented in 1776, thirty-five of the

DNA Connections

It may be possible to confirm family relationships with Josiah by comparing test results with other carriers of his Y-chromosome or his mother's mitochondrial DNA. However, there are no known yDNA or mtDNA test-takers in his direct paternal or maternal line. It is likely that these autosomal DNA test-takers will share DNA with Josiah:
