Scriven Arts Colony hosts photographer Matt Nighswander July 5

Jun 17, 2016

GILMANTON — The Scriven Arts Colony launched in 2015 to host cultural events in a circa 1790 barn in Gilmanton. The Colony's next event, set for Tuesday, July 5, at 8 p.m., will be a slide show presentation given by photographer Matt Nighswander, a Gilmanton native.

Nighswander is a graduate of Gilmanton School, Yale University and Columbia College Chicago. Now a multimedia editor for NBC News in New York, he has recently been photographing his hometown, finding a quiet and haunting magic in the landscape of his childhood. As he presents these photos and other projects, he'll discuss the transformative power of photography and the rise of digital media.
