"How the Zombies Stole Christmas," a haunted house tour for children of all ages. What if Christmas was frightening? What if Santa Claus was not a jovial fatso, but rather an emaciated wraith with a taste for bats' blood and an eerie cackling laugh? What if every Christmas tree in the land was decorated with human bones that jangled in the cold wind? Come get your answers to these and other urgent questions as the Scriven Arts Colony's across-the-street neighbor, eighth grader Chas Townsend joins a few of his cronies from The Gilmanton School's theater club to transform our barn into a nightmarish wonderland.
