Furniture design historian to speak Aug. 14

rockymem@metrocast.net Aug 3, 2017

GILMANTON — On Aug. 14 at 7:30 p.m., Gilmanton summer resident and art historian Kristina Wilson will visit the Scriven Arts Colony in Gilmanton to discuss furniture design. Wilson will consider how the Herman Miller Furniture Company incorporated ‘exotic’ tourist art from faraway lands in its advertising to give its products—including storage pieces, tables, and chairs—a global, cosmopolitan air. Wilson is a professor at Clark University, in Worcester, and the author of Livable Modernism: Interior Decorating and Design During the Great Depression, published by Yale University Press. She is now at work on a new book about the 1950s.
