Talk/Slide Show: Art historian Kristina Wilson

Monday, August 14, 2017
7:30 PM – 9:30 PM

Google Calendar · ICS

A lifelong Gilmanton summer resident and
an art history
professor at Clark University, in Worcester, Kristina Wilson is a leading expert on furniture design and the author of Livable Modernism: Interior Decorating and Design During the Great Depression, published by Yale University Press. Now at work on a new book about the 1950s, Wilson will discuss how the Herman Miller Furniture Company incorporated ‘exotic’ tourist art from faraway lands in its advertising to give its products—including storage pieces, tables, and chairs—a global, cosmopolitan air.

Earlier Event: July 22

Talk/Slide show: Photographer Hector Emanuel

Later Event: July 1

Poetry Reading: Paige Ackerson-Kiely and Kerrin McCadden
