Hear Civil War stories

On Aug. 27, Pat Clarke will talk about the brave Gilmanton men and follow Company B during its muster and the three major battles in which it fought during the war. He will also discuss the War's effect on Gilmanton's people, including the town's small black population. The Gilmanton Historical Society's August program, at Old Town Hall in Gilmanton Iron Works, begins at 7:30 p.m. Social hour and refreshments begin at 7 p.m. and the program begins promptly at 7:30. The Society's museum, in the basement of Old Town Hall, will be open at 7 p.m. The Society's final program of the 2019 series, on Sept. 24, presents "A Brief History of Gilmanton's Churches." The Society's museum in Old Town Hall in Gilmanton Iron Works is open every Saturday morning, 10 a.m. to noon, June, July and August. The programs are free and open to the public. Donations to support the work of the Society are always welcome.
