BELMONT — Lynn Carey, 72, of Belmont, NH, passed away on Saturday, March 7, at her home.

Lynn was born on July 6, 1947, in Wilmington, DE, to Maryanna Kieffer Carey and Alfred Hastings Carey Jr. She was the much-loved first grandchild of Natalie Virginia Harris Carey and Alfred Hastings Carey Sr., and lived with them and her aunt Virginia (Tookie) during her early childhood on the Gibraltar Estate of H. In 1960, the family moved to Hockessin, DE, where they became members of Hockessin Friends (Quaker) Meeting. Lynn was a very talented artist throughout her high school years. She graduated from the original A.I. DuPont High School on Kennett Pike in 1965. Lynn married in 1967 and moved to New Hampshire in 1969.

She loved her many cats, especially Miss Potts, the beach, her garden, and of course Jimmy Buffett concerts. Lynn was proud to be a descendant of 1st Delaware Volunteer Infantry Company A Civil War soldier Holton Yarnall of Brandywine Springs, DE.
