GILMANTON I. W.

The only child of Ansel and Alice J. Emerson died of heart disease at the home of its grandparents, Harlon Paige and wife, the 18th.

Our sweet darling, Grace Bernice, was with us here on earth only a short 5 months and 13 days, yet long enough to find a large place in the depth of our heart's affections, then an all-wise Father took her away to blossom in heaven.

We had thought her a well baby, but as we look back now we can see that the fatal disease was doing its work from the very first. The first discovery of any serious trouble with the heart was only five days before she passed away, then the disease developed very fast and she was free from suffering. While our hearts are very sorrowful that we must lay away our precious treasure in the cold, cold ground, we cannot murmur against the goodness of our kind heavenly Father, for with this fatal disease upon her we know that it is far better that the little one be free from all pain and suffering, and to be where Christ has said, "That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven."

Funeral services were observed at the house Sunday, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. G. Munsey. The words of scripture used were, "It is well with the child." His words were very tender and kind.
