

A. Harding Margeson

December 23, 1928 - July 7, 2019

Brighton. July 7, 2019. Pre-deceased by his wife, Harmony, and their son, Barry, Harding is survived by his daughter, Deborah (Ken) Kramer and their children, Aaron and Lauren; his daughter-in-law, Jennie and children, Samantha and Christopher.

Harding was born in Gilmanton, NH, served in both WWII, receiving a Victory Medal, and the Korean Conflict. Following his education at University of New Hampshire, he moved to Rochester to join Eastman Kodak. He retired from Kodak after 31 years of service.

Harding had a curious and creative mind, developing, patenting and marketing a bookmark. He loved cards, golf, nature, history, ice cream and peanut butter, the stock market, and his family.

At his request, services and interment were held privately at White Haven Memorial Park, Pittsford.
