BORN 1952

DIED 2022

Nancy Normand, age 69, formerly of Manchester, N.H., passed away in the evening of January 13th, 2022.

Four years ago, Nancy was diagnosed with a brain tumor, had surgery and had been actively living with the condition until her recent passing.

Nancy was born on February 17, 1952, as a baby boomer to Lucille and Lucien Normand, an Air Force couple from Manchester, N.H. living in Colorado Springs, Colo.

She attended Immaculata High School and NHTI later in life. Nancy worked in the NH Secretary of State Corporate Division for many years and as a law firm paralegal. She enjoyed socializing, playing, and listening to music, participating, and volunteering for her community, and was an activist for women's rights and various other social justice causes. Nancy was also a proud member of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Concord, N.H.

Nancy and her former husband, John Thompson, purchased a home at the end of a dirt road in Gilmanton Iron Works, where they enjoyed the rustic surroundings, their pets, chickens, garden and young child, Eleanor. Later in life she lived in Concord, where she had many friends and acquaintances. She enjoyed joining other musicians to present music to others wherever they were.

Nancy is survived by her daughter, Eleanor Thompson; her siblings and in-laws: James and Lynn Normand, of Manchester, N.H., Susan (Normand) Cole and Tim Hassett of Yarmouth Maine, Thomas and Denise Normand, of Orlando, Fla., Charles and Lynn M. Normand of Jamestown, R.I.; as well as several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her mother, Lucille Normand and father Lucien Normand.

SERVICES: Memorial services and a celebration of Nancy's active life will be announced at a later date in the spring. Memorial donations may be made in Nancy Normand's name to the Unitarian Universalist Church of Concord, N.H.
