

Rose Marie Young

GILMANTON IRON WORKS – Rose Marie Young, 99 ³/₄, died Monday, Aug. 28, 2017, at Concord Hospital surrounded by her family after a brief illness. Rose was born in New York City, the daughter of Charles and Carolyn Heim.

In 1943, she married Morton Young who predeceased her in 1991. They moved to Gilmanton Iron Works in 1951 into the large family home of Eben and Cora Young, who had previously operated the Highland Farm Inn. Rose was active in many Civic affairs including being elected as a School Board Member, a Charter Member of the American Legion Auxillary Ellis, Geddes, Levitt Post 102, the Eastern Star, Woman's Club, Garden Club, and a very active member of the Gilmanton Community Church.

She was Post Office Employee in Gilmanton I.W. and prior to her retirement, she was a Trust Officer for the First National Bank of Boston. On June 4, 2014, she was presented the Boston Post Cane.

She is survived by her sons, Morton Young and Sue of Gilmanton Iron Works, Donald Young and wife, Rachel of Bow; three grandchildren, Christie Bluhm and her husband, David, Brett Young and his wife, Kate and Chelsea Roberge and her husband, Brian; and seven great-grandchildren, Noah, Benjamin, Maxwell, Addison, Lucas, Kinsey and Gwendolyn, all of whom lovingly referred to her as G-G (Great-Grandmother). Family was very important to Rose, including her Church family.

A service will be held Saturday, Sept. 2, at 10 a.m. at the Gilmanton Iron Works Church, 1807 Route 140, followed by a burial in the Smith Meetinghouse Cemetery, Gilmanton.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Gilmanton Community Church, PO Box 16, Gilmanton, NH 03237.

Published in The Concord Monitor on Aug. 30, 2017
