

THE HISTORY OF GILMANTON

(including what is now GILFORD)

By DANIEL LANCASTER - - - Reprint of 1845.

This is a first draft of a detailed INDEX to this book on names of persons with a few locations also included. (1) Where a pencil line appears under a page number, the name of the person appears more than once OR other(s) of the same first name appear on the same page. No detailed study has been made to group under a single person's name only the pages referring to him for at times this is almost impossible to discern from the text. One man can be referred to by numerous "titles" at various stages of his life. (2) When a woman's name is preceded by (Mrs) it indicates she has married into the family where her name is listed. When possible, her maiden name is preceded by "nee" but many of the names appearing as the sir names are probably the maiden names of the women. (3) [] a page in a block indicates a living sketch. 1-2-3 = generations covering some name. (4) First settlers are indicated with page no.
