— In The Laconia Democrat

— The largest payroll the Ranlet Car Co. "ever made, at one time, was last Saturday, it being nineteen hundred and fifty dollars. They pay once a week."

Woodbury Melcher, Esq., 73, died, Nov. 10. "When he became 21 years of age he went into business as a merchant at Northwood, where he remained but a few years, going from that place to Gilmanton Corner, continuing in the same occupation there. In 1830, he bought out a stock of goods in this place, and moved here, where he has resided since . . . Not long after coming here he engaged in manufacturing, taking an interest in the 'Ticking Mills' Company and retaining his interest in this and other manufacturing stock until within a few years. He accumulated a handsome fortune." Melcher held various public positions in the town and state. At the time of his death, he was a trustee of the Asylum for the Insane and was also president of Laconia Savings Bank.
